

Outreach Worker

Healthiest Babies Possible & Early Years Program, 28-35 hours/week

Key Accountabilities:

- Provide perinatal support and education
- Provide mental health and emotional support to mother through pregnancy and throughout the infant's first year
- Provide nutritional support and skill development to enable healthy eating for the entire family
- Involvement with weekly group programs
- Provide home visitation in an outreach capacity
- Develop parenting capacity through education and cultural approaches
- Liaise with health care professionals
- Willingness to fit in to an established team

Qualifications:

- Social Service Certificate or Child & Youth Diploma, -ECE-IT, Aboriginal focus preferred and /or combination of relevant education and experience
- Current CPR for Child Care
- Valid Class 5 BC Driver's license and use of reliable vehicle
- Knowledge of woman-centred principles, practices and theories related to healthy pregnancy, infancy and early childhood development
- Experience working with Aboriginal communities
- Knowledge and appreciation of Aboriginal cultures
- Strong facilitation skills

Submit resume and cover letter, with current references to:

Arlene Sam, arlenesam@hofduncan.org

Hiiye'yu Lelum Society,

Box 1015, Duncan, BC V9L 3Y2

Or drop off at #106-5462 TCH, Duncan BC. This position will be open until a suitable applicant is found.